England Hockey News

A late goal from Olivia Chilton helped Wimbledon edge past rivals Holcombe in a closely-fought Women's Hockey League Premier Division clash on Saturday. After a goalless first half Anna Toman broke the deadlock from a penalty corner four minutes after the restart. Holcombe battled their way back and hoped for at least a point after Joanne Westwood levelled the scores with five minutes remaining. But Chilton had the last word, finding the net in the 70th minute to clinch victory for Wimbledon.

Hampstead & Westminster hosted Loughborough Students in what turned out to be a six-goal thriller with the visitors taking a 4-2 victory. The contest got off to a frenetic start with Sarah Robinson putting the home side ahead after just four minutes. But by the ninth minute the game had already been turned on its head with goals from Lucy Millington and Alice Rolfe making it 2-1 to Loughborough. Izzy Petter and Jane Kilpatrick put Loughborough further in front and Emily Maguire's effort for Hampstead proved to be only a consolation.

Surbiton ran out 3-0 winners at the University of Birmingham. It took just two minutes for Emily Atkinson to give Surbiton the lead, but they had to wait for the second half to put the game to bed with goals from Georgie Twigg and Eloise Stenner.

It was another difficult week for Swansea as their opponents Beeston secured their first win of the season. Lauren Burrell bagged a brace in the 4-0 win with Maddy Newitt and Kelsey Briddell also contributing.

East Grinstead are level on points with Surbiton at the top of the division after drawing 1-1 with Buckingham. They had fallen behind to a Megan Lewis-Williams field goal but levelled through Ellie Rayer after the break.

Division One North

Two late goals from Bowdon saw them come from behind to beat Ben Rhydding 2-1 in the Women's Division One North. Freya Bellamy had given Ben Rhydding the lead but Bowdon hit back through a penalty stroke from Sian French on 62 minutes and then a goal two minutes from time by Aine Curran.

Brooklands-Poynton were quick out of the blocks as Annie Mills and Annabelle Watton put them 2-0 up inside six minutes against Stourport, going on to win 3-1. Beth Merriman pulled one back for Stourport, but Cat Booth restored the hosts' two-goal cushion in the second half.

A Katie Long double helped Leicester City to a 4-2 win over the University of Nottingham and the University of Durham prevailed over Belper as Emma McIntyre and Hannah De Selincourt scored the goals in a 2-0 win.

Sade Gerald and Alexandra Ogilby were on target in Olton & West Warwicks' 2-0 defeat of Gloucester City.
